Here are some shots and a quick notes for Pukehuia Park Community Kī o Rahi kaupapa '23-24

Newlands Primary whānau playing after school

St Brigids school day visit to Pukehuia to learn Kī o Rahi

Will he score or has the defender got the rip?

St Brigids Taniwha in action, check out the jump shot and the kaitiaki commitment on defence!

Hands up who loves Kī o Rahi.

Kī o Rahi session with Te Kura Kaupapa Māori ngā Mokopuna at Ākau Tangi

World's first Wheelchair Kī o Rahi session, SO MUCH FUN!!!

Definitely a highlight will be keen to do more of this. You can watch our reel here <https://www.facebook.com/reel/7464310377029067>

Ākau Tangi after school community have a go days, lots of requests for more sessions and even regular competitions there

ĀkauTangi session with Lyall Bay school

Oh common ref, what's the call? Kī o Rahimight be the hardest sport in the world to ref and everyone is an expert, even if it's their first session learning the game

Community have a go days

Poi toa was available for people to try and also allowed some to release their inner warrior!

Waewae rakau - sticks are very popular with kids of all ages - here we have a parent showing the kids how it's done -ka mau e wehi, awesome whaea! Showing us play is for everyone.

Poi taua - battles on!!!

Māui murere, it takes more than physical skills to win any game!

Some players were slightly more competitive than others

Friends having fun retrieving the Kī from out of bounds...

One of many Pukehuia days, whanaungatanga, manaaki and kaitiaki were evident at these events and with the participants even outside of Pukehuia Park

Someone turned the gravity off

Size is no barrier to participation when it comes to Kī o Rahi.

Community session, no one ever takes the score.

Newlands jnr rugby whānau day.

Not sure who had more fun, the parents or the kids. Whanaungatanga was the winner on the day!

Taonga created for regular Matariki Puanga Hui Tākaro.

Tākaro Toa 2024 Wainuiomata Intermediate.

Whanaungatanga shared between two kura after a haka to end an exciting kēmu - Evans Bay Intermediate and Te Kura Kaupapa Māori o Te Ara Whānui. Two kura that do not usually get to meet for school events.

Here is some video footage that captured some of the magic:

We will be updating this page with more promo videos from our recent awards

Everyone is keen to win a poi toa prize, even the police.

Thank you for this opportunity to share our kaupapa with Pukehuia and the wider community.
